Forming Consciences for Faith Citizenship

What does it mean to form my conscience? Catholics have a long tradition of engagement in the public square. Sometimes that engagement requires making difficult moral decisions that impact our own lives and those of others. Our conscience can help guide the decisions we make. The Second Vatican Council guides us: "Always summoning [one] to love good and avoid evil, the voice of conscience can when necessary speak to [one's] heart more specifically: do this, shun that" (Gaudium et Spes 16). However, our conscience doesn't just come to us when we are born. We must work throughout our lives to form it through prayer, learning, and conversation.

How do I form conscience? It takes time to form our consciences so that we can make well-reasoned judgments about particular, real-life situations. The Church teaches that it is important to work continually on conscience formation so we can be prepared to make decisions whenever the opportunity arises. Some specific ideas to form your conscience are:

1. Begin by being open to the truth and what is right.
2. Study Sacred Scripture and the teaching of the Church.
3. Examine the facts and background information about various choices and be discerning in where we gather information.
4. Prayerfully reflect to discern the will of God (Forming Consciences for faithful Citizenship, no.18)

Additionally, it is important to consider how our community of faith can help us form good consciences through some of these steps:

1. Seek the prudent advise and good example of trusted leaders and others to support and enlighten our conscience.
2. Learn about the authoritative teaching of the Church.
3. Pray for the gifts of the Holy Spirit to help us develop our conscience.
4. Regularly partake in an examination of conscience to hear God's voice in your life.

Next week the universal church celebrates all who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith: All Saints Day and All Souls Day, Nov 1 & 2.

Our Sunday Masses will be the Feast of All Saints, a day set apart to remember the men and women who are heroes of faith to us.

On Monday Nov 2, we will come together at 6pm Monday evening for a Mass to remember all those we love who are no longer with us. This day is a special fiesta for some of our Hispanic community, so our liturgy will be bilingual. We will also take the opportunity to remember the many souls who have died due to the Covid19 pandemic this last year. Our doors will be open for those who would like to join us. We will of course, be practicing safe social distancing within the church as always. After Mass on the evening of Nov 2, there will be a small procession uptown to the Church of the Living Hope where there will be an outdoor altar prepared to continue the 'Day of the Dead' celebration.

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT...

Baby Asthon won the internet this week in his stylish "barong," the traditional Filipino national attire made of bamboo fabric. His private weekday baptism served as a special reminder to all of us that our faith encompasses countless cultures that each bring a very real, lived flavor to our shared faith. And how blessed is our community to be able to continue baptizing our little ones in socially distant ceremonies?

EN CASO DE QUE LO PERDISTE...

El pequeño Asthon ganó las redes sociales esta semana con su elegante "barong", el traje filipino tradicional hecho de tela de bambú. Su bautismo privado el jueves pasado sirvió como un recordatorio especial para todos nosotros de que nuestra fe abarca innumerables culturas y cada una aporta un sabor muy real y vivido a nuestra fe compartida. ¿Y cuán bendecida es nuestra comunidad de poder seguir bautizando a nuestros pequeños en ceremonias socialmente distantes?

La próxima semana, la iglesia universal celebra a todos los que nos han precedido marcados con el signo de la fe: Día de Todos los Santos y Día de los Difuntos, 1 y 2 de noviembre.

Nuestras misas dominicales serán la Fiesta de Todos los Santos, un día reservado para recordar a los hombres y mujeres que son héroes de la fe para nosotros.

El lunes 2 de noviembre, nos reuniremos a las 6 pm el lunes por la noche para una misa para recordar a todos los que amamos que ya no están con nosotros. Este día es una fiesta especial para algunos miembros de nuestra comunidad hispana, por lo que nuestra liturgia será bilingüe. También aprovecharemos para recordar las muchas almas que han muerto a causa de la pandemia Covid19 este último año. Nuestras puertas estarán abiertas para aquellos que quieran unirse a nosotros. Por supuesto, practicaremos un distanciamiento social seguro dentro de la iglesia como siempre. Después de la misa de la noche del 2 de noviembre, habrá una pequeña procesión en la parte alta de la ciudad hacia la Iglesia de la Esperanza Viva, donde habrá un altar al aire libre preparado para continuar la celebración del "Día de los Muertos".
